Science Year 1
I can ask simple questions.
I can observe closely to support identiftication, comparison and noticing change.
I can use practical resources provided to perform tests to gather evidence to answer questions.
I can use testing to classify, compare, find patterns and make observations over time.
I can gather and record data to help answer questions.
I can use my observations and ideas to suggest answers to questions.
I can identify and name a variety of common animals including, fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.
I can identify and name a variety of common animals that are carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.
I can describe and compare the structure of a variety of common animals (fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals including pets).
I can identify, name, draw and label the basic parts of the human body and say which part of the body is associated with each sense.
I can distinguish between an object and the material from which it is made.
I can identify and name a variety of everyday materials, including wood, plastic, glass, metal, water, and rock.
I can describe the simple physical properties of a variety of everyday materials
I can compare and group together a variety of everyday materials on the basis of their simple physical properties.
I can observe changes across the 4 seasons.
I can observe and describe weather associated with the seasons and how day length varies.											