

DIMPLE INFANT SCHOOL & NURSERY EMPLOYEE PRIVACY NOTICE

HOW WE USE EMPLOYEE INFORMATION?

We collect and use employee information under the principle of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which states that data is used for “specified, explicit and legitimate purposes”. The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group, religious beliefs
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- ID Verification documents (Right to Work in UK)
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.

WHY WE COLLECT AND USE THIS INFORMATION

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- ascertaining your fitness to work
- complying with a legal obligation
- complying with Health & Safety obligations
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Support effective performance management

THE LAWFUL BASIS ON WHICH WE PROCESS THIS INFORMATION

We lawfully process this information to:

- enable the performance of the employment contract, e.g. to pay salaries or make pension contributions

- perform legitimate interests of the employer, e.g. for administrative purposes
- process personal data to comply with legal obligation to disclose employee salary details to HMRC.
- comply with a legal obligation, e.g. under the public-sector equality duty.

COLLECTING THIS INFORMATION

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

STORING THIS INFORMATION

We keep personal information about you while you work at our school. We may also keep it beyond your employment at our school if this is necessary. Our data retention policy sets out how long we keep information. (Our data retention policy is available on request from the school).

We have security measures in place to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

USE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA IN AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING AND PROFILING

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

WHO WE SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH

We routinely share this information with:

- Wakefield Local Authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Wakefield Council HR Department
- ISS – Feeding Hungry Minds (Caterers)

WHY WE SHARE SCHOOL WORKFORCE INFORMATION

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

DATA COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data. ## REQUESTING ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, please submit a request in writing, either by letter or email to the Data Protection Officer (contact details below). Including:

- Name of individual
- Correspondence address
- Contact number and email address
- Details of the information requested

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
